Ice Famine in Clay City.

There is an ice famine in Clay City, and too during the hottest weather of the season. This has put us to thinking. If all the factories in Mt. Sterling, Winchester and Lexington can't supply their home trade and furnish the towns on the L. & E., why not there be a plant located at Clay City. We have an abundance of water surrounding us, water which is always pure and fresh. A plant located here could supply the home consumption and all points up the road at all times, and would have the advantage over the other plants in the way of freight. Some of our capitalists who have so much idle money, should investigate the profit and we feel sure they will find it a profitable one.

McDanell-Groves.

James McDanell, of Warsaw, and Miss Mayme Groves, of this city, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lou Groves, Wednesday, August 22, the Rev. R. A. Irvin officiating. Mr. McDanell is Supt. of schools of Gallatin county, while Miss Groves is a well known school teacher of this county, but has been teaching at Warsaw the past school term.

Work to Begin Oct. 1st.

The date now set apart to begin work on the Stanton cement plant is October 1st this year, and we are assured that work will begin on that date. The capital involved is $500,000 00 and when the plant is completed it will be in position to compete with the other large plants of its kind. We have some faith in this last report and believe now that the plant will be put in, and if it is, it will certainly mean much for the grand old county of Powell and Stanton especially.

Big Crowd in Town.

Saturday a large crowd came to town to see the Colorado Grant's Wild West show. The people were somewhat disappointed as they failed to reach here in time to exhibit in the afternoon, but they showed at night to an overflowing tent full of people. The show was different from what was ever exhibited in this city, and was highly enjoyed by all present. They had some exceptionally intelligent animals and their rifle and pistol shot could not be excelled.

Died at 100 Years.

"Aunt" Peggie Robinson died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Role Hendricks, near this city Friday Morning, aged 100 years or over. "Aunt" Peggie has been twice married, first to a Harrison and last to a Robinson. She leaves two living children. Mr. Harrison, of Confederate Veteran fame is a son of "Aunt" Peggie's. Her maiden name was Shimfessel, sister to Mr. A. Shimfessel, a leading citizen of Hardwick's Creek, now 93 years. Deceased was buried at the Wells graveyard on Hardwick's creek Saturday afternoon.

Powell Jurors All Right.

The eight Powell boys impaneled on the jury last week trying the French, Abney and Smith cases at Beattyville, in their actions arose above suspicion. Seven of them being for conviction and one for acquittal. We believe every juror from this county acted honestly in making their decisions and would have believed the same had their decision been different. Three of the Lee county jurors helped to hang the jury.

The Republican primary in the Eleventh district Saturday was full of fraud and shortage of ballots, as alleged by members of the party. D. C. Edwards, the incumbent, won the nomination.
